Reading for Life
An evening for the whole family (and friends)

Mazenod College Mothers and Fathers Associations with O’Rourke Library
invite you to an evening of wine and cheese accompanied by a journey into the joys of adolescent reading

When: Monday, 30 April 2012, 7:00pm – 9:00pm
Where: O’Rourke Library, Mazenod College, Mulgrave

Presenter
Dr Pam Macintyre, Lecturer, Language and Literacy Education
University of Melbourne Graduate School of Education

Pam teaches in the Bachelor of Education Primary Course, the Bachelor of Teaching and Master of Education courses, specialising in children’s and young adult literature. She has a passion for sharing the love of reading and helping adults to support young people in finding the books they will enjoy.

Co-author of the Knowing Readers: Unlocking the pleasures of reading, Pam is also an experienced judge for a variety of awards and has a wealth of knowledge to share.

Her enthusiasm is infectious and the Reading for Life evening will be a most enjoyable event.

It will be a relaxed evening aimed at helping families to:

- Continue to nurture their sons’ reading development
- Share the reading experience within the family
- Help their children to select books they will enjoy
- Gain an appreciation of the great range of Australian fiction available
- Find out what has worked for others when interest in reading wanes

You will have the opportunity to:

- Obtain a list of great books which have been enjoyed by others
- Buy books if you choose to (books available but no pressure to buy)
- Share the pleasure of reading for enjoyment

We look forward to your company on this evening. Please complete the reply slip and return it to the Library by Wednesday, 25 April 2012.
